The City of Mexico.

The following sketch of the city of Mexico is extracted from the Hon. Waddy Thompson's new book or Mexico, prepared by him from notes taken while h resided in that country as the American Minister: "The city of Mexico is said to be the finest buil city on the American continent. In some respects certainly is so. In the principal streets the houses ar all constructed according to the strictest architectura rules. The foundations of the city were laid, and the first buildings were erected by Cortes, who dis every thing well which he attempted-from building houses or writing a couplet, to conquering an empire Many of the finest buildings in Mexico are still owned by his descendants. The public square is said to be unsurpassed by any in the world; it contains some twelve or fifteen acres paved with stone. The cathedral covers one entire side, the palace another the western side is occupied by a row of very hig and substantial houses, the second stories of which project into the street the width of the pavement the lower stories are occupied by the principal retain merchants of the city. The most of these house were built by Cortes, who with his characteristi sagacity, and an avarice which equally characterized him in the latter part of his life, selected the bes portion of the city for himself.

The "Foreign Quarterly" is purely literary, being devoted principally to criticisms on foreign Continental Works. Tho prices of the REPRINTS are less than one third of those of the foreign copies, and while they are equally well got up, they afford all that advantage to the American over the English reader. TERMS .- PAYMENT TO BE MADE IN ADVANCE. For any one of the four Reviews, $3,00 per annum. For any two of the Reviews, 5,00 per annum. 7,00 per annum. For any three of the Reviews, 8.00 per annum. For all four of the Reviews, For Blackwood's Magazine, 3,00 per annum. For Blackwood and the four Reviews, 10,00 per annum.

CLUBBING. Four copies of any or all of the above works will be sent to one address on payment of the regular subscription for three—the fourth Remittances and communications must be made in all cases without expense to the publishers. The former may always be done through a Postmaster, by handing him the amount to be remitted, taking his receipt and forwarding the receipt by mail postpaid; or the money may be enclosed in a letter, post paid, directed to the publishere. N. B. The Postage on all these Periodicals is reduced by the late Post Office law, to about one third the furmer rates, making a very important saving in the expense to mail su' scribers. *. In all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States, to which there is a direct Railroad or water communication from the city of New York, these periodicals will be delivered Free Postage.
